1. APPOINTMENT, SCOPE OF DUTIES & MOBILITY

1.1 Appointment: The Employer employs the Employee, and the Employee accepts employment to perform all duties faithfully and diligently in accordance with this Agreement and the Workplace Policies.

1.2 Duties & Responsibilities: Primary duties include Point-of-Sale (POS) operations, till management, inventory display, stock counting, customer service, and shop cleanliness as detailed in Schedule A.

1.3 Branch Mobility: The Employee explicitly recognizes that Inventive Harvest operates retail outlets across Dub Dub, Kipasa, and Trade Center. The Company reserves the operational right to rotate or transfer the Employee between branches upon reasonable operational notice.

2. PROBATION & PERFORMANCE EVALUATION

2.1 Probation Duration: The first three (3) months of employment constitute a probationary period during which suitability, punctuality, integrity, cash accuracy, and customer demeanour are assessed.

2.2 Extension: Management may extend probation for an additional period not exceeding three (3) months where corrective training is warranted.

2.3 Notice During Probation: Either party may terminate employment during probation by giving one (1) week's written notice or basic salary in lieu thereof.

3. REMUNERATION, DEDUCTIONS & OVERTIME

3.1 Remuneration: Gross basic salary shall be paid monthly in arrears on or before the monthly pay date.

3.2 Statutory Deductions: The Employer shall deduct statutory employee contributions (PAYE income tax, social security/pension, and national health insurance) as required by law.

3.3 Consented Deductions for Loss/Shortage: The Employee irrevocably consents to lawful salary deductions for proven till shortages, unverified cash variances occurring on the Employee's shift, unreturned advances, or proven company asset losses occurring through the Employee's wilful default or negligence.

3.4 Overtime: All overtime requires prior written authorization from the supervisor or Managing Director and shall be compensated in accordance with applicable statutory standards.

4. STRICT CASH HANDLING, POS & TILL INTEGRITY

4.1 Mandatory POS Rule: EVERY SINGLE customer transaction must be entered into the POS system (or pre-numbered manual backup register during power outages) BEFORE merchandise is released to the customer. No unrecorded sales are permitted under any circumstances.

4.2 Official Customer Receipts: Cashiers must issue an official printed POS receipt to every customer. Discarding receipts or failing to issue them is a disciplinary offense.

4.3 Shift Float & Closing Counts: Cashiers must perform joint opening and closing cash counts with the supervisor and sign the Daily Cash Register Control Sheet daily.

4.4 Bucket Separation: Sales takings, Operations funds, Rent reserve, and Savings/Black Box reserves must remain strictly segregated. Commingling funds or paying operational expenses directly from till cash without a formal voucher is prohibited.

4.5 Absolute Ban on IOUs & Borrowing: Taking money from the till for personal use, placing IOUs ('chits') in the cash drawer, or storing personal cash in the company till constitutes gross misconduct and criminal theft.

5. INVENTORY, TRANSFERS & LOSS PREVENTION

5.1 Stock Inwarding: All goods delivered to the branch must be inspected, verified against delivery invoices, and inwarded into the POS inventory before being placed on sales shelves.

5.2 Inter-Branch Transfers: Stock transferred between Dub Dub, Kipasa, and Trade Center requires a pre-numbered Stock Transfer Voucher (STV) signed by both dispatching and receiving staff.

5.3 Physical Audits & Cycle Counts: The Employee shall participate fully in weekly cycle counts and monthly full physical stocktakes.

5.4 Right to Search: To protect inventory integrity, the Company reserves the lawful right to conduct reasonable physical searches of the Employee's bags, lockers, and parcels upon entering or departing Company premises.

6. LEAVE ENTITLEMENTS & ABSENCE

6.1 Annual Leave: Paid annual leave accrues at two (2) working days per completed month of service (24 days/year) and must be requested fourteen (14) days in advance.

6.2 Sick Leave: Employees must report incapacity at least two (2) hours prior to shift start. Medical practitioner certificates are required for absences over one (1) day.

6.3 Job Desertion: Unauthorized absence for three (3) consecutive working days without communication is classified as job desertion, triggering immediate contract termination.

7. CONFIDENTIALITY, NON-COMPETE & LOYALTY

7.1 Non-Disclosure: The Employee shall maintain strict confidentiality regarding supplier pricing, profit margins, turnover data, POS credentials, and business strategy during and after employment.

7.2 Conflict of Interest: The Employee shall not engage in parallel private trading, sell personal goods on company premises, divert company customers, or accept kickbacks/commissions from suppliers.

8. DISCIPLINE, TERMINATION & EXIT CLEARANCE

8.1 Disciplinary Framework: Progressive discipline shall be administered: Verbal Warning -> Written Warning -> Final Written Warning -> Summary Dismissal.

8.2 Gross Misconduct: Offenses warranting summary dismissal without notice after a fair hearing include: theft, till manipulation, unrecorded sales, fraudulent records, unauthorized cash borrowing, intoxication on duty, violence, insubordination, and breach of confidentiality.

8.3 Notice of Termination: After probation, either party may terminate employment with one (1) calendar month's written notice or basic salary in lieu thereof.

8.4 Asset Clearance: Upon exit, all keys, passwords, tablets, uniforms, and company property must be returned before terminal dues are disbursed.
